

Discover this Lucrative Secret of How to Quit Your Job in 90 days and Join the Great Migration Without Having a Boss!

Millions Have Left the Office and are Working from Home. But They Still Have to Report to a Boss. Learn How You Can Join Them Without Needing a Boss with our Limited Time Offer.

Dear Tired and Fed-Up Friend:

This is your year to cut ties with your job and say Good-bye to your boss!

I'll show you the secret of how to quit your job in 90 days without having a boss.

Those who've already migrated are either self-employed or working from home for a company.

But I can show you how to make great money without a boss. You can make up to six figures or more!

I'll share more about that in a minute, but first I'd like you to meet Jessica McKay.

She has a real gift for intuition but couldn't find the right 9-to-5 job to fulfill her.

She started her own business and was a life coach for eight years, but she barely made $3,000/month.

In 2019 she was surprised to learn that a friend was making a living as writer.

So, she researched this and found us. She got herself situated and began studying the AWAI flagship program (I'll explain later) to do the same thing.

But her busy schedule held her back.

Then when the pandemic hit, it created a way for her to realize her dreams. She now had more time to make things happen.

She was able to follow her passion by using her writing to do it.

"She specializes in email sequences and web copy {writing for the internet/web for short} for healers, coaches and entrepreneurs – like she used to be."

After she learned the secret, I'll be sharing with you, she cleared $10,000/month in her first year.

Here are some of the things Jessica shared that she is now able to do:

- Her husband can relax and make plans for his own business
- They can save for retirement
- They can now go on vacations because they have time and money
- Most of all, she gets to spend a lot more time with her husband

And this is what she had to say about it:

"This is the most lucrative career I've ever had in my life. I can think about things I didn't have the luxury to think about before. It's changed everything."

Wouldn't you love to learn how to do that?

Imagine never needing to clock in again. Never needing to ask for permission to take time off.

Imagine not having to worry about your health and well-being because you're in a safe environment.

Your time would be your own and you'll have plenty of money to take care of needs and desires.

You'll be able to spend more time with family and friends.

You'll be able to take vacation wherever and whenever you choose.

You don't have to be left behind when it seems like almost everyone else is migrating from their jobs.

You too can decide where and when you want to work.

You don't have to keep a job that no longer fits your needs.

The world has changed. Your needs have changed. It's time for a better fit.

And you don't ever have to go back to that job or boss if you don't want to!

How is all this possible?

By discovering a lucrative secret that will set you free from ever needing or having a boss again!

If you can write like you talk, then you can do this. Thousands of people just like you have migrated.

They've said "Good-bye" to bosses and to jobs that no longer meet their needs.

They're now enjoying the writer's life they never knew was possible. And so can you!

Many are making up to six figures per year or more writing letters just like the one you're reading.

I'm going to introduce you to several copywriters who are now enjoying the writer's life.

And I'm going to share at least seven different ways that you can join them in the Free Bonus Reports!

Can You Really Make a Living as a Writer?

First let me answer this very popular question. Yes, You Can! Thousands before you have done it.

Thousands more continue to do it. Let me introduce you to one such person.

Krista Jones was an environmental scientist. She rose quickly in her career choice.

But she was very unhappy. It wasn't what she expected.

She commuted over one hour to work each way. She wasn't happy with the work she had to do.

She was always fixing problems instead of focusing on her passion.

She did a little exploring and discovered that she may be able to make it as a writer.

Surprised to learn that, and not feeling very confident that could do it, she put that thought aside.

Until one day she received a letter in the mail asking: "Can You Write a Letter Like This One?"

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

It was from American Writers & Artists Inc. (AWAI). More specifically the Barefoot Writer Club.

The letter showed her how companies are looking for writers and will pay top dollar for them.

All they need is for you to write like you talk and be compelling.

To be able to leave her miserable job and work from home like she always wanted, was the ticket for her.

It was an offer she could not refuse. It took a couple of months before she decided to take the leap.

Krista studied the AWAI flagship program (I'll explain later).

And she gradually cut her hours down from work as she grew her business.

Some of her accomplishments as a writer were:

- Winning the AWAI $10K challenge to write promotional copy for AWAI
- Landing her dream client Nightingale-Conant (through AWAI contacts)
- Starting a Garden Center with her husband that focused on her true passion

Eventually she left her job when her writing replaced her income.

She was also able to realize her passion of making the environment better when she established her garden center.

This is what Krista Jones had to say about it:

"I feel like in many ways that I am coming full circle, coming back to the idea and dreams I initially had when I was younger. But now, I am in charge of my own destiny."

You can join Krista and realize the dreams you had when you were younger. Dreams you never thought could happen.

And for my burned-out medical professionals, I'd like for you to meet Christian Nix.

Christian was a licensed practitioner of Chinese medicine. He authored several medical books and had tons of clients.

But like most medical professionals (after several years), he began to feel the fatigue from all of his responsibilities. He wanted out!

He had gone as high as he could for earning money. In his profession you have to see more patients to earn more money. He was tapped out. No more energy or will power.

So, to try to gain more time and money for himself he tried sharing what he learned to Western doctors. But soon realized that he didn't know how to market himself.

His research to learn more about that led him to AWAI. He studied the AWAI flagship program (You know 😊). Soon after, he decided to change careers.

Christian took a different path than the ladies I just told you about. With his newfound skills, he decided to take a job with Legacy Research Group (connections that began with AWAI).

But he's making more money and has more time than when he owned his business.

He said that when he builds his experience, he plans to work remotely.

Christian said that he loves to travel and wants to see more of the world. That includes an extended trip to visit his wife's family in the Philippines.

He also uses his new skills to write information products that bring in a hefty sum of money!

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

This is what he had to say about that:

“I probably gave myself a good 400% raise when I calculate everything. With writing, you can sell your own product, and also write stuff for a company, and do very, very well with a fraction of the effort I had to put in with my previous career.”

And this is Christian’s advice to you:

“We live in a time where freedom, wealth and your ability to do your own thing is greater than it’s ever been by orders of magnitude. If other people have done it, why not you? As long as you’re willing to work for it.”

I hope you can see now that if you can write a letter like this one, you can make it as writer.

But if you don’t want to leave your job, or aim for a better life with more time and more money, you should stop reading.

This letter is only for people who are tired and fed up with the way things are, and tired of not having control over their time and finances.

Are you tired and fed-up yet?

You have the choice to keep reading to discover how you can make all your dreams come true, or not...

Thank you for hanging in there 😊

Let’s talk about you right now. What would you do if you had an extra sixty hours of spare time each week?

Did you work a lot of overtime just to save for vacation or emergencies?

Well, you won’t need to do that anymore!

Did you work overtime just to stay afloat?

Well, you won’t have to worry about living paycheck to paycheck anymore either.

Did you feel like your job was more your home than your home?

Say Good-bye to uncomfortable shoes and hello to your bare feet and jammies 😊 .

Did you sometimes forget what your loved ones looked like because you worked so much that you didn’t get home until after they were already in bed?

Well now you can spend as much time as you want with your loved ones.

Your loved ones never have to play second fiddle to your job responsibilities again.

When was the last time you dreamed or fantasized about a better life?

Well, you don’t have to dream anymore!

You can make this happen for yourself. You are in charge of your own path. You can do this!

You will be fully supported and encouraged every step of the way.

You will never be alone in this journey.

Let's take a closer look.

How Do You Make the Most Money Writing?

I guess you're wondering how you can get the most bang for your buck.

Well, I'll tell you. But first let me tell you how the others did it.

They studied the program that suited them (more about this later).

They did their best work. They landed clients.

Made good money! Then celebrate and repeat!

You choose your own salary based on what you're doing. And you won't be working for peanuts!

The highest paid writers are called Direct Response Copywriters.

They're called that because they can get you to do stuff, take action.

Like sign up for a newsletter or try a new product for a trial subscription or make a purchase.

They write like they talk, and they are talking directly to you, my friend.

It's NOT like writing books or working for a content mill for $5 an article.

You can make millions "IF" your book is good. But it's hard to make a living writing books.

Copywriters can earn as little or as much as they desire. From an extra $400/week writing blogs to a few thousand per week writing Case Studies, to thousands per month or every 6 weeks writing sales letters (plus royalties 😊). Writing sales letters are the fastest and most lucrative way.

So, I hope you can realize that the opportunities are great wherever you chose to begin your journey.

People You Never Knew Were Copywriters

I bet you're thinking that you never heard of a copywriter before. But indeed, you have.

You just didn't notice or think it was something special. You've seen them in the movies and on TV.

On the Jot Jot Boom website, they list some roles actors have played as copywriters.

You may recognize some of them:

- In "Melancholia" Kirsten Dunst is the copywriter in this movie who has to come up with "the line" while the world is literally ending.
- In "What Women Want" Mel Gibson is the copywriter literally struck with electrical inspiration to hear what women think. He comes up with a Nike ad campaign targeting women. Of course, he gets the girl at the end of the movie.
- In "The Agency" Canadian Actor Saul Rubinek plays the copywriter in this dark thriller with twists and turns.

The most common copywriter roles you may be most familiar with are with TV shows like Mad Men.

Peggy Olson and Don Draper were copywriters, to name a few.

And maybe you've heard of Elaine, the copywriter on Seinfeld.

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

But these actors played the roles of copywriters who really didn't make the kind of money I'm talking about.

So let me help you unpack this...

What is a Copywriter?

A copywriter is a writer who writes all types of marketing materials to support businesses or a cause.

Every written material you've ever seen, read, or heard on TV (commercials) were written by a writer.

But only a copywriter writes things to get you to notice or buy something. That's a lot of copy!

Copy is what we call the words that we write for you. Yes, just for you! Don't you feel special? 😊

Take for instance your "Junk Mail". That's right, they were written by copywriters.

Right down to the coupons in your Sunday newspaper!

But not all copy is created equal. Some copy is just to make you aware of a product.

Like when you keep seeing ads or TV commercials about Tide detergent.

They don't tell you to buy it, but they keep demonstrating how well it works.

They continue these types of ads so that you'll remember their brand and hopefully pick up a bottle the next time you go to the store. They don't know how effective their commercial is. It's not measurable.

But a Direct Response ad is something like a commercial that'll show you how well a product works like a Ninja Bullet food processor and then asks you to call to place an order. They know how well they did based on the number of sales they receive. It's measurable.

Both types of copywriting are in great demand!

Why Should Any of This Matter to You?

Well, my friend, you should know that there is a real shortage of copywriters!

WE NEED YOU! Especially since our world has drastically changed and more people than ever have migrated to work from home.

Many have decided to open their own businesses because their financial and personal needs weren't met.

Businesses have had to change the way they do things to accommodate our "New Normal".

So, they're scrambling to find copywriters to help them in their transition from brick and mortar to virtual.

According to information I found on Grow Acorns, "An estimated 41% of Americans are working from home, reports UpWork. And according to the Redfin data, a striking 72% of homebuyers and sellers expect their remote work to continue."

So, you see, things aren't changing anytime soon. We may as well roll with it.

And now I'll show you how you can...

But before I do that, I'd like you to meet Mindy McHorse.

Meet Mindy 😊

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

Mindy McHorse is the Executive Director of the Barefoot Writing Club.

Once upon a time she was in your shoes (literally).

She spent one-hour commutes to and from work. She worked a job that was very unfulfilling and stressful with a boss breathing down her neck micromanaging.

She was in debt up to her eyeballs. Over $100,000 in debt - $80,000 student loans and $20,000 credit cards. And of course, there was the mortgage.

She and her husband barely saw each other because they spent most of their time working.

She wondered when or if they would ever be able to start their family.

But all that changed the day she received a letter in the mail from Paul Hollingshead.

Paul was one of the founders of American Writers & Artists Institute (AWAI for short).

He invited her to join a special new group with a really different name...

“The Barefoot Writer Club.”

She didn’t really think of herself as a writer, but that letter touched her deeply.

Paul shared his struggles about working a dead-end job stocking shelves at a grocery store for just a few dollars per hour.

At the blare of the clock in the morning with several groans that followed, he’d dragged himself to work.

He was a college drop out with limited opportunities. He didn’t like to work, and he wasn’t motivated.

Now here’s the interesting part, in less than a year he turned his life around.

He found a way to make a six-figure income working from home as a freelance writer, writing letters like the one you’re reading right now.

With his limited education, limited experience, and basic letter writing training from AWAI, he made more than $300,000 in a year’s time!

Let me be clear about his success. He wrote more than one letter and he collected royalties on those letters.

So, this was not a one and done. He learned how to write successful letters that brought in a lot of money. And the companies he wrote for awarded him handsomely for it.

And there are thousands of people around the country doing the same.

So, once Mindy’s husband agreed (according to the letter they received) that there was no risk (money back guarantee), she took the plunge.

Admittedly, it took Mindy three years to make a six-figure income. Everyone’s results are based on their own efforts.

She still had to work that job while she was making the change to become a copywriter.

But with the skill sets she learned she was able to:

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

- Pay off her all her debts.
- Finally leave that miserable job.
- Start a family (they have four children now).
- And work only 4 hours a day (from home) without missing any time with her family.

And this is what she has to say about it:

“Because nowadays, not only am I working from home... I’m also working with the comfort and security of knowing my career is untouchable by outside forces. The world around us changes more every day...another friend just tweeted that she’s been laid off. And yet...I still have a comfortable income. Yet I walk around barefoot all day.”

How would you like to work barefoot all day and make more than enough money to sustain you?

Mindy didn’t make six figures right off the bat. She got there slowly because of life. But she did get there. She saw that it was possible, and she stayed the course. In the meantime, she did make money to get out of debt.

Mindy McHorse is the Executive Director of the Barefoot Writer Club, and she wants to help you do just that! Walk around barefoot all day making the kind of money you never dreamed was possible!

JOIN THE BAREFOOTWRITER CLUB
NOW!

So, let’s take a deeper look at what you’ll be receiving from the Barefoot Writer Club...

Everyone I’ve mentioned so far has learned how to do this. That is why they are so successful.

That is why they:

- work from home
- have plenty of money
- have no debt
- can realize their dreams
- have plenty of time with their families
- call themselves Barefoot Writers

And I know that you want to be successful too. That’s why you’re still reading this letter. At this point can probably picture yourself working from home. You can picture yourself spending more time with your family. You can picture yourself making as much money as you desire and more.

So let’s dig in to this...

I promised I would share 7 ways that you could join the Barefoot Writers and here it is:

7 Reports to Show You Ways That You Can Live the Writer’s Life

BONUS Report # 1 The Smart Start Copywriting Program

In this program, you'll learn the basics of how to write a copywriting letter.

We'll teach you a special formula for that. We'll show you how to write a compelling headline.

How to Grab your reader by the eyeballs. How to get readers to respond.

And how to get clients to pay you handsomely!

Just to write a letter like this one, you can make as little as $5,000 as a beginner. And upwards to $20,000 or more as you gain more experience. And let's not forget the royalties! For every successful letter, you can arrange to get a cut of the profits every time they mail it out! How's that for residual income?

While we're on the topic of these letters. They're generally mailed out the old-fashioned way. You're probably wondering, snail mail? I know right? Like people still get mail in their mailboxes, it's a thing. 😊

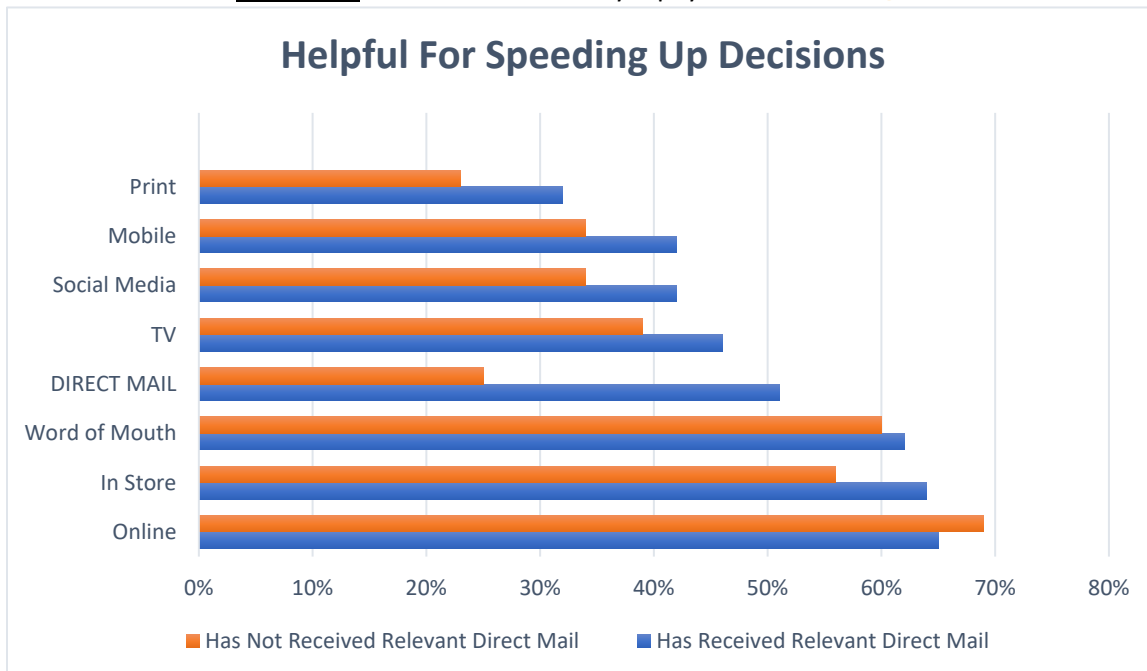

As I was saying, there was a study that showed that mailing direct mail packages to people's homes is still more effective than all the other media used today.

Say What?? It turns out that people like getting mail. It's more personal and so they read things more readily. Go figure. It's proven that people make faster decisions when they're holding the mail in their hands.

Check this out:

How Powerful is "DIRECT MAIL" (the graph in the middle) on getting people to make a decision?

According to this graph I borrowed from the Pebble Post, DIRECT MAIL (what we copywriters do for the big bucks) outperforms the rest of the media for getting customers attention. Because most of what a customer receives form Direct Mail is what they want to receive. That's why it pays so darn well 😊 .

WRITE WHAT YOUR PASSIONATE ABOUT

You may be wondering what you could possible write about in a letter and who gets the letter.

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

Let's talk about that first part. I suggest you only pick subjects you care about.

What are you passionate about?

If finance is your thing, then write for financial companies. If health is your thing, then write about that.

If golf is your thing, then write for companies that are all about golf.

Here's the thing, you get to decide what you write about. That's the beauty of it all. Your choice 😊.

As far as who gets your letters, the companies you write for will mail your letters to their mailing list of prospects or customers. Never you worry about that.

MEET OTHER COPYWRITERS

The other great thing that's so great about this program is that it tells you about many other members who started out with absolutely no writing experience at all...

These members are living the dream and writing from wherever they desire.

They are making more money than they ever dreamed possible.

NO BOSS! NO JOB!

SET UP YOUR BUSINESS

We'll show you how to set up your business...

All you need is a computer and an internet connection.

We'll also show you how to find clients where you live and around the world.

And how to get paid top dollar.

And how to write about your passion.

So basically, how to become successful as easily and quickly as possible as a copywriter.

IS THIS EASY TO DO?

YES! Plenty of copywriters before you have gone from zero to six-figures within a year or two. It's doable and realistic.

It's as easy as:

1. learn the skills
2. get clients
3. get paid
4. celebrate and repeat

This is the best and fastest way to realize your dreams and get rid of your boss!

Here's a couple of examples of members who did just that:

Jake Hoffberg went from zero to $140K after one year!

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

Jake was wide-eyed open to see opportunities. Even though he made a lot of money in sales, it wasn't what he wanted to do. He hated it! So, one day he quit with no back up plan.

Oops! Have you done that or considered that? Well, there is hope for you yet! Check this out!

This is what Jake had to say about becoming a copywriter:

"I had never written sales copy or had any dreams of being a writer before. But I was attracted to the lifestyle. I wanted to work on my own schedule. Given my 10 years in sales, copywriting just made sense."

But even though he had background in sales, he found that he had to start from the beginning like everyone else.

"I had a sales background, but still started at zero with copywriting like everyone else. It happened so quickly because I was so persistent in finding clients."

And this is what Jake had to say about his success:

"One year after I got paid my first copywriting project, I made $140,000. What other opportunity do you have in 90 days to learn a skill and make six figures your first year doing it?"

Here are a couple of his accomplishments:

- Started a full-service marketing agency to help financial advisors build their businesses with wealthy clients
- Created a financial copywriting course to share his knowledge and meet the needs of his agency for qualified writers

You see, all it takes are skills and persistence! Anyone can do this! YOU CAN DO THIS! And you can realize all of your dreams. You can even have new dreams and goals to reach 😊

Here's another success story:

Guillermo Rubio had a lot of part-time jobs, but struggled to pay the bills. He just wasn't feelin' what he was doin', but he had to work to take care of himself.

He actually waited 5 years to act on the AWAI letter he received in the mail. He had to overcome fear!

He overcame by consistent practice, practice, practice.

In 2012 it all paid off. These are a few of his accomplishments:

- Won the AWAI $10k challenge for new project work with AWAI
- He began working on a book about how fear can lead to success
- He was able to triple his income

This is what he learned about himself during his journey to success:

"I have found that my career has grown, and my income has grown as I work on myself. Everything is in proportion to how much self-work you do, because as a solopreneur, it all comes down to you."

And this is his final advice to you:

"Figure out what you want to be. If you're not there yet. It's because of fear. The thing you are fearing is what you need to be doing."

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

You have absolutely nothing to fear! You will find a family of support in AWAI and all the resources you need to succeed just like Guillermo did! You Got This!

BONUS Report # 2 The $500 email secret

So, this one is perfect for dipping your toe into copywriting! It's amazing that companies are willing to pay upwards of $500/email for about 200 – 300 words each.

Say whaaaaat? That's right! And they don't just ask for ONE email. They usually need about five to seven at a time. So, you can possibly make anywhere from $2,500 - $3,500 IN ONE WEEK!

And these are emails that people signed up to receive. You won't be sending SPAM! No worries 😊

Thanks to Barefoot Writer Jay White for coming up with this method of making money! And he will teach you how to do the same!

And this is what Jay has to say about it:

"Since I became a freelance writer, my life has changed dramatically. I have more free time for family and friends...enjoy what I do immensely...and best of all—make more money than I ever dreamed of!"

You my friend, can also be one email away from realizing your dreams!

BONUS Report # 3 The Secret of the 1-Hour Work Week

This method is perfect for anyone who wants to make money while they sleep! Just in case you may be too busy or too shy to take the leap, this is the perfect baby step for you!

And you only need to spend no more than 15 minutes a day to keep it going!

How about that? We have something for everyone 😊

Meet Barefoot Write Nick Usborne who came up with this one! He'll show you how to make as much as $48,000/yr (or more) writing about whatever floats your boat 😊 from collecting dolls to tiny house living.

So how does this work? It's all about the power of the internet and people's need to know. That combined with your passion to share your hobby or interest.

Once you're up and running, you only need to spend 15 minutes a day (longer if you can't help yourself LOL) to bring the cash in while you're sleeping. Making money has NEVER been as easy as this without clients!

Nick writes about coffee, and he'll share how his love of coffee created a steady stream of income and SWAG (perks you get along the way of being a writer).

Here's a testimonial from someone who dove right into Nick's program:

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

Kathy Widenhouse had already learned copywriting through AWAI decided she wanted passive income. She now has three successful Money-Making Websites in addition to her other accomplishments:

- A successful copywriting career as a nonprofit copywriter
- Seven published books
- Adding other personal projects to the mix because she has the time and money to do it 😊

This is what Kathy has to say about it:

“You have to work to get the website up and running, but then it just hums along in the background...If I want to work more I could do more, but I’ve made some decisions about where my time should be invested. I definitely keep busy, but it’s all work I love!”

So not only did she NOT need a boss to become a successful copywriter, she also didn’t need clients to fulfill some of her goals too! How about that? 😊

BONUS Report # 4 Get Paid to Research

Here’s another easy way you can dip your toe into the copywriting world (so to speak) without writing copy (words we write to persuade people just like you 😊)!

Scratching your head on that one?

Let me explain. Copywriters have to do a lot of research when they’re writing for their clients. Research is time consuming! So, if they don’t do it themselves, they need to hire someone to do it for them.

How did this program come to be?

Carline Anglade-Cole (a superstar A-list Alternative Health Copywriter from AWAI) needed a researcher because her client was overwhelmed trying to get the research to her so she can start.

So, she enlisted her cousin Sandy Ferguson. As she explained to Sandy what she needed, Sandy said “my face turned white as a sheet (And I’m a black woman!).”

But thanks to Sandy overcoming her fears and doubts, she wrote an awesome research program that’s easy to follow! And easy to cash in!

You’re basically getting paid to surf the web and present what you found and all for $75/hour to start!

Now when Sandy started, her first rate was only $18/hr because it was all new. Look how much more money you can make!

Just think of it...You can earn $300 by lunchtime!

And this is what Sandy has to say about the program:

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

“...I promise you won’t need the connections I was lucky enough to start with. In this program you’re going to learn exactly how you can go out and get clients cold, with no personal introduction needed. (Plus, how to “piggyback” your services so you don’t have to do much of the selling!)

I gotta say, this program is right up there for anyone who wants an easy entry into copywriting.

You can sooooo do this! Anyone can do this because everyone surfs the web 😊 . Still don’t need a boss!

BONUS Report # 5 The Secret to Telling a $2,000 Story!

Barefoot Writer Ed Gandia will show you everything you need to know to get started with this lucrative way to tell a story! He’ll even show you how to get clients.

This baby right here is just for my “I can’t wait to write a book” people. Noooo, this is not about book writing. But it is close! I dare say it’s a lot more profitable and reliable.

In this report, you’ll learn how to write a feel-good story.

What’s a feel-good story? It’s a true story about a customer’s experience. They’re formally called Case Studies.

But here’s the thing, this will take you like less than a workday to write it.

Guess how much this pays? $2,000!! For one day’s worth of writing!

Now if ever there was an easy way to make over $100,000/yr, this is it!

If you do the math, one “feel-good” story per week comes out to just about $104,000! Believe me when I tell you that you will not make nearly that amount of money writing a book!

Now doesn’t that make you “FEEL GOOD”?

And this is what Ed has to say about his own personal copywriting success:

“As a freelance writer I’m able to chart my own course...I don’t commute to work...I don’t travel...I get to see my family every day...I have no one to answer to...Plus I’m a lot more relaxed than I used to be...This may sound cheesy, but I’m a lot more at peace now that I’m in control of my life.”

And if you want a raise, guess what? Don’t need a boss! Write more Case Studies and make yourself “FEEL GOOD”! Cha-Ching$$

BONUS Report # 6 Get Paid to Take Your Next Vacation!

This wonderful report is for my people who lovvvvvve to take vacations!

Barefoot Writer Jen Stevens will share her secrets for all the wonderful things you can have by becoming a travel writer. Oooh so many perks!

She'll show you how to travel for nearly nothing or no cost at all when you learn the tricks.

Now we're not talking cheap hotels or cheap travel. We're talkin' luxury baby! Top of the line!

So, if you remember all the times you wanted to take vacation and couldn't get the time off, those days are over!

Your life can be a permanent vacation if you want it to be. And with all the perks included in high class livin'!

Jen got into travel writing because she loves to travel. She found herself editing copywriter's work while she was managing a publication. She felt that she was on the wrong side of that lucrative transaction. She's traveled all over the world and has plenty of expert advice to share in your pursuit of the writer's life.

This is how she made the switch to copywriting, from editing copywriter's work that she paid for:

"So, I quit and went freelance so I could charge those high fees myself ... and work from home, travel when I feel like it, be around to see my kids grow up. It's worked out swimmingly. It's not that I don't work hard. And some weeks I'm in the office long hours. But my office is 15 feet from my bedroom, I can throw laundry in the machine in the middle of the day, and I can make time to volunteer with the PTA. My life is my own and I get paid six figures to live it."

Aaaah, life at the beach anyone? Oh wait, you have to return to your job...Just kidding 😊

BONUS Report # 7 130 Amazing Perks and Freebies for Barefoot Writers!

This is my favorite part! Today you're going to learn a new work – Glicken!

Glicken are the perks you receive from being a copywriter and working it!

Here's just a few examples shared from the President of AWAI Rebecca Matter:

"On my way home from vacation, my brand-new Swiss Army luggage came down the baggage carousel crushed. I was pretty upset about it since I had just made the decision to upgrade to bigger bags and shelled out the cash before my trip, so I decided to write the company a persuasive email asking them to replace it.

And even though their warranty clearly states that it does not cover airline damage and that all warranty claims require you to ship back the damaged luggage on your own dime, my persuasive email got them to send me brand-new replacements, without having to do a further thing.

It may be small, but it took me less than 10 minutes, and I have brand-new luggage coming this week!

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

I was quite pleased with the outcome, and it gave me the idea to ask AWAI members on Facebook to share their own glicken stories with me too ...

"Writing letters pays off when you query a medical bill and insurance changes its mind and pays the whole $2,000 (instead of expecting you to pay $1,365 of it). I'm looking at it as if I earned $1,365 for 15 minutes of writing and two stamps!!!!!"

– Penny Thomas

"It actually becomes less expensive to stay 'current' in the industry as you build a reputation. Aviation companies send me books, software, magazines, and other products to review. I get in free to conferences if I'm speaking, and the organization that invites me often picks up the hotel costs. When you're starting out, you have to cover a lot of these costs yourself, so it's ironic that you spend less as you start to make more money."

– Paula Williams

"About a year ago, I got to write a promo for a weight loss program ... after overcoming all the objections to getting started in my copy, I sold myself on doing it and lost 60 lbs in 6 months. So essentially, I got paid to go through a weight loss program ... winning! :)"

– Henry Bingaman

"Rebecca, this is still related, at least indirectly, to revenue from clients, but developing my persuasive writing skills has made me a more effective public speaker. It has helped me produce some killer 'elevator speeches.' I've even had people I've met in networking circles ask me to write elevator speeches for them!"

– John Rugh

"Getting access to all of Zig Ziglar's programs and getting to meet Zig himself. Also getting access to other clients' programs, materials, and products. I've used what I've learned to help promote things for friends and family and get my money or a family member's money back on bad service, gotten better tables/seating at restaurants, and even gotten free champagne and dessert too!"

– Cindy Cyr

"Being able to write persuasive copy for my OWN books and other products. I just wrote landing pages for our online conference yesterday, for example."

– Susan Daffron

See what I mean? All shapes and sizes, but it's all glicken that comes from knowing how to write persuasively."

Whoooooaaahhhh! Is that awesome or what? It's like when you become a Barefoot Writer, you belong to an elite group of VIPs! So, it's like the royal carpet rolls out for you because of the power of the pen (ink 😊).

So, on top of all of the other cool benefits of becoming a Barefoot Writer, gaining the skills, landing lucrative clients, living life on your own terms, you also get the Royal Treatment!

Is there anything better than that? When was the last time you got the Royal Treatment at work? From your Boss?

When was the last time you had an occupation that gave you so much money, freedom, and honor?

Hmmmm.... Yea, I got nothin'.

But now you can!

NO EXPERIENCE NEEDED!

You're probably wondering if you need any experience to start this new career with the Barefoot Writers.

The answer is...

Absolutely Not! Everything you need will be available for you! And don't forget what I said, there is a demand for copywriters!

The world is your oyster, literally!

With the world changing the way business is done due to the pandemic and all the many changes that needed to be made, your new position is secure!

Brand new writers won't start off with peanuts!

You'll be well trained and well paid!

Instructions and support on how to get started are available for you!

All you need to bring to the table is your determination.

Let's see what is may be needed...

No Startup Cost!

When most people start a business, it's assumed that there will be expenses. Overhead, etcetera. But when you're a Barefoot Writer, all you need is a computer and internet connection.

Seriously...that's all you need to get started!

What Does it Really Take?

As I said before, you need to bring your determination to the table!

And I mean you're A Game! This is not a get rich quick scheme.

Barefoot Writer's study hard and work hard. They're not generally lazy people.

Even when it comes to the programs that don't require copywriting or clients.

If you want to make money, you have to put in the work. Plain and simple.

But your work will pay off in spades! And you'll discover that making Six-figures by following the advice of those who've gone before you is definitely doable in a year's time!

How Much Can You Expect to Make?

Ok, my friend, we've gone over quite a bit. Let's try to unpack this. So, from the least paid writer in all that I've presented to you today we're talking at least $75/hr for researching websites.

And the most lucrative writer can start making as much as $5,000 per sales letter as a beginner.

But the beauty of it all is that everyone can make six-figures/year based solely on their own efforts!

The sky really is the limit! You are only limited based on your imagination and self-confidence.

And from what I've learned being a part of this amazing group, is that they can help you with that too!

Oh, wait a minute, you’re probably wondering who the heck I am. Well let me introduce myself.

I saved my introduction for last. I’m Linda Beauty Marks an aspiring copywriter. A newbie if you would. I’m a nurse who desperately wants to leave the nursing field because I’m burned out from the pandemic.

I’m also a Barefoot Club member. I’m one who’s had a slower start because life got in the way. I’m sure you know about that. But now that I’ve got my bearings, I’ve been telling EVERYONE that I’m a copywriter.

Linda Beauty Marks, linda@njhma.com, January 24, 2022, Sales Letter Mastery Cert.

Quick story about that. I just had a conversation with Stephen who's a business contact from an Alternative Health Business that I order from every month. Stephen and I were discussing credit monitoring services that they offer to their members.

We were enjoying our conversation very much. I happen to mention that I'm a copywriter that helps businesses market their products and services. He was so happy about that and asked if I would check out his emails to see if they were good. Of course, I told him I'd be happy to. And just like that, I have a potential client. Getting clients is like making friends 😊. All you have to do is care about their needs and help them.

So, just know that everyone's journey is different. But if you hang in there, you will realize your dreams. Just like those that I've shared and so many more.

And soon enough they'll be a case study about you too! 😊

P.S. I just want to share one more story with you:

In this era of Covid, many employees have just decided to quit their jobs. Well people were doing that before the pandemic, and they still landed on their feet. Let me tell you about Li Vasquez-Noone:

She was a cubicle worker. But she was often taken advantage of. Training people who made more than she did without any raise or change in her position. She was so fed up with the mistreatment that she plotted her escape. With the help of her husband, she saved one year's worth of her salary and quit just like that.

She did not have a plan beyond that and it was in the middle of a recession. Thankfully she received a letter in the mail asking, "Can You Write a Letter Like This One?" You guessed right! It was from AWAI inviting her to become a Barefoot Writer.

She discovered that writing sales letters wasn't her thing. But the training she received allowed her to find other things that she really enjoyed writing.

This is what Li had to say about her experiences:

"Earning six-figures wasn't necessarily my big goal. I hadn't even thought about it until someone asked me, but now I make about twice as much as I made in my corporate job. And I'm MUCH happier."

Once again folks, NO boss, NO "job, but the freedom to earn as much as want, however you want, and wherever you want. Aaah, the Writer's Life! Come join us!
